EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jay Rowe on February 3, 2008.

Insert the following on page 4, line 35 of the original specification:

"BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE DRAWING

Fig. 1 shows a particle with fine structure embedded in the surface of a coated textile sheet according to the claimed invention."

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of reference is taught by Kerins et al. (US 6,638,603) in view of Keller et al. (EP 1153987)

Kerins et al. teach a transfer coating method of a hydrophobic material on a carrier substrate to a water-sensitive film (abstract; column 3, line 66 – column 4, line 4). A carrier substrate, such as a release paper, is coated with the hydrophobic material, transferred to a film under heated conditions, and the carrier is removed to leave the material on the film (column 7, lines 33-57). Maximum protection is provided to a surface, by applying hydrophobic particles in a dot pattern so close that the dots touch each other (column 2, lines 50-51; column 6, lines 24-38).

Keller et al. further teach applying a coating onto conventional surfaces, such as textiles, where the coating comprises particles with a hydrophobic surface and a porous structure, to have a completely waterproof surface (abstract; paragraphs 0018, 0053, 0075, and 0121), to reduce adhesion to polar liquids, such as water, and solid deposits, such as dirt (paragraph 0008).

There is no teaching in the prior art of carrying out a transfer coating process of a hydrophobic film on a textile without the use of any adhesive, binder, or adhesion promoter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
